PREPARE TO MEET THY GOD

THE MEN WHO GO TO HELL, DO SO OVER THE SOLEMN PROTEST OF THE HEAVENLY FATHER

Brother Ramsey spoke with wonderful power last night, using as a basis for his remarks three texts: Isaiah 1:13, Matt. 24:44 and Amos 4:12. From these three passages the main thoughts dwelt on were: "Be reason together," "Be ready," "Prepare to meet thy God."

Let Us Reason Together.

The preacher said he believed he could reason out why any sane man should be a Christian. He said he was glad religion pays as it goes, and you don't have to wait till you die.
It is a reasonable thing for a man to be faithful and loyal to his God, it makes him better, in any thing that is worth while.

Why!

In answer to the question on the lips of so many, "Why should I heed this word and prepare to die," the first reason he gave was that God, our Father, says so. God knows what is best for his children and is anxious to bring the best to them so he looks down and says, "Oh, my children, make preparation to live and prepare to meet thy God, for you know not the day nor the hour."

Why prepare? Only in this preparation can the longing in your heart for the divine be fully satisfied, there is a longing in us for the bread and water of life and only by coming to our father can we satisfy that longing in the heart. There is a feeling of orphanage in every soul away from God. Only in this preparation can we ever be fully satisfied and happy.

Why prepare? Because the meeting time is inevitable. Prepare to meet thy God. We shall meet him prepared or unprepared. Is it not wisdom to be ready?

He has appointed a day in which he shall judge the world and we shall all go before the judgment seat of God.

Why prepare. Because death doesn't end all. We shall all die.

Why prepare. Because our preparation or neglect of it shall decide our destiny. Character, like water, finds its level. While character gives a man his place in this world, it will give him a place in the next world.

Brother Ramsey dwelt some time on the fact that instead of God's sending men to Hell, He as our loving Father, is doing his very best to keep men from going to Hell, and that if men go to Hell they are going over the solemn protest of God. The man that is damned at last is the man that just wouldn't be saved. He plead with men to turn away from sin and come to the God who is ready to give them life eternal.

When

WHEN PREPARE? In this life.
WHEN PREPARE? When you are young.

WHEN PREPARE? While you are in health and strong.

WHEN PREPARE? Prepare while God gives you an opportunity.

WHAT DOES IT BRING? It brings a pardon full and free from all your sins.

WHAT DOES IT BRING? It brings purity, for it cleanses from all sin.
It's going to bring peace, to bring a real helpful life, and will bring happiness in this world and in the end.

At the close of this earnest appeal from this man of God who loves the souls of men, a number said by giving him their hand that they wanted to prepare to meet God.

During the after service several men, women and boys decided for Christ.

SEWER CONTRACT LET BY COUNCIL

GILKERSON & LEVY GET IT ON A BID OF $1372.50 THE ONLY ONE.

HOLES IN STREETS REPAIRED

All Bills Submitted Are Approved.
Sanitary Sewers Contract Is Approved by the Council.

The city council met last night with Aldermen Hill, Chapman, West, Crowder and Sims, the latter presiding, present.

The most important work of the session was the letting of the Main street storm sewers. Only one firm, Gilkerson & Levy, bid on the work.
Their bid was $1448.41, which was rejected on account of it exceeding the city engineer's estimate. Mr.
Levy then announced that his firm would accept the work at the engineer's figure, which was $1372.50.
Motion was made by Chapman and seconded by Hill that the sewer contract go to Gilkerson and Levy at the engineer's estimate. Motion was carried.

Bills Allowed.

Gilkerson & Levy's bill of $2800 for work done was allowed.

Jack Maxey's bill of $20.25 for street work, approved.

Wm. Renfro, $1.50 for work on cemetery approved.

The presence of several holes in the streets caused by the brick crossings falling in the sewer ditches was made known and the holes ordered filled in.

The contract of Gilkerson & Levy of the lateral sanitary sewers was approved.

LATERAL SEWER WORK PROCEEDING AT RAPID RATE

GILKERSON & LEVY ARE PUSH-ING THE WORK.

One Thousand Feet Completed Yesterday—Job Will Be Completed in Twenty Days.

Gilkerson & Levy, the contractors, began yesterday with a gang of fifty men digging the lateral sewers. The work was begun between 10th and Main streets and one thousand feet dug yesterday.

Today twenty-five more men were put to work and within a few days a full force of 150 workmen will be employed. The contractors say it will require about twenty days to complete the job.

Sewer Mains Tested.
The sewer mains of the city were tested yesterday and found to be in first class shape.

COWBOY REUNION.

It Will Be Held In Oklahoma City
Dec. 31 and Jan. 1.

The old customs of the west are rapidly vanishing before the inevitable march of modern progress and habits. Conditions are changing constantly and in a few years those old-time frontier days will be but a memory. Exactly is this true of the cowboy of the plains who for the past half century has furnished more material for human interest tales than most any other source of the west. His days are numbered, and the time may not be long off when his usefulness will be over.

But his memory will live many years after he is no longer here. The perpetuation of it will be found in an organization which will be organized in Oklahoma City during a reunion of the cowboys of the world.
This first attempt at such a meeting will be held in the State Fair association grounds east of this city December 31 and January 1, Friday and Saturday. The meeting and its purpose is being planned by J. Ellison Carroll, the champion cow roper of the world, who wrestled the belt from Clay McConigal at San Antonio in 1901, and in one of the most sensational cow roping exhibitions ever known.

At the coming meeting it is proposed to organize the cowboys' association of the world and invitations have been sent to cowboys of Kansas, New Mexico, Texas and Oklahoma. It is expected that more than three hundred ropers will be present at the meeting, and a larger number of their friends from the several states.

One thousand dollars in purses will be put up for prizes for roping, the winner of the first prize being entitled to $600. There will be exhibitions in riding, roping and cowboy races, and the entertainment will be of the first magnitude.

Mr. Carroll left Saturday night for Kansas City and Chicago, where he goes to engage steers for the roping contest.—Oklahoma City Times.

TULSA BANK CLOSES.

Unsecured Paper the Cause of the Failure.

Tulsa, Okla., Dec. 13.—The Farmers' National bank of this city was taken in charge tonight by National Bank Examiner F. W. Bryant after an investigation of the bank's affairs.

The bank was closed after a two week's investigation of its affairs.

The closing is an aftermath of the recent failure of the Columbia Bank and Trust company, of Oklahoma City, both houses being under the control of W. L. Norton.

Ever since the Columbia failure in Oklahoma City, it was expected the Farmers' National here would be unable to withstand the rush of withdrawals and loss of deposits. Less than two months ago the local bank's deposits were $1,000,000 while yesterday when the bank examiner closed its doors, they were $475,000. Over $200,000 were state, city and county funds. Over $40,000 was paid de-positors yesterday, the money being produced by other local bankers for the acceptable paper of the Farmers' National. It is said the liabilities will be about $100,000. The assets were not announced.

Unsecured paper, bad loans and investments are given as the reasons for the closing of the bank. Owner Norton was heavily interested in the oil business here, and it is said part of the unsecured paper was in the hands of local people.

The Farmers' National was established in 1903, with a capital of $1-000,000 and was one of the leading banks of this part of the country up to the time of the Columbia affair.

The president was E. F. Blaise, and B. F. Andrea was cashier. Mr. Blaise announced tonight that he believed the bank to be solvent.

DENOUNCES PRES. ZELAYA TWENTY KILLED IN WRECK

MARYLAND SENATOR WANTS NIC-ARAGUA RESOLUTION PASSED.

Wants Public Life of Zelaya Made Public So United States May Know the Man.

Washington, Dec. 13.—Vigorously denouncing President Zelaya for having murdered Cannon and Groce officers of the revolutionary army, Senator Rayner of Maryland today advocated the passage of his resolution authorizing the President of the United States to apprehend and try the President of Nicaragua for his crime against these two American citizens.

The private life of Zelaya, almost unspeakable in its enormity said Mr.
Rayner, should be made public by the State Department in order that the people of the United States might know the kind of man Zelaya was.
Mr. Rayner said there was ample authority in international law for the course he advocated to bring Zelaya to the bar of justice.

In moving that the resolution be referred to the committee on foreign relations, Senator Lodge said he was glad to know that the senator from Maryland so thoroughly approved the course taken by the administration as he himself heartily approved it.

Senator Cullom, chairman of the committee on foreign relations, added that he would have something to say about the resolution when it was reported by his committee back to the senate, a remark which was interpreted as meaning that he expected it to be favorably reported.

At 1:45 o'clock the senate adjourned until next Thursday.

PREFERENCE TO NORTH NEGROES

In Political Appointment This Is President's Policy.

Washington, Dec. 13.—That President Taft is going to make appointments of northern negroes for office rather than southern ones is the information which has been pretty thoroughly disseminated among the negro politicians throughout the country.

The president has talked over his ideas about the appointment of negroes to office with some of the leading men of the race and he has signified to them his inclination to give recognition to the negro voters in northern states.

As the result of this policy it is expected that the negroes in the south who are holding important offices will as their terms expires be displaced for the most part by whites and in turn recognition will be given to negroes in the north.

The list of negroes holding important offices in the south under the federal government includes the following:

Robert Smalls, collector of customs at Beaufort, S. C.; Henry A.
Rucker, collector of internal revenue at Atlanta, Ga.; Joseph Lee, collector of internal revenue at Jacksonville, Fla.; Nathan H. Alexander, register of the land office of Montgomery, Ala.; Thomas V. McAllister, receiver of public moneys at Jackson, Miss.; Walter L. Cohen, register of the land office at New Orleans. Alexander B. Kennedy, receiver of public money at New Orleans; John E. Bush, receiver of public moneys at Little Rock.

The course the president will take in the matter of appointing negroes is likely to be illustrated in the selection of a successor to W. T.
Vernon, register of the treasury.
Booker T. Washington and other negro leaders have given their support to J. C. Napier of Nashville for the place.

Union Pacific to Have Steel Cars.

Omaha, Dec. 12.—Announcement is made by the Union Pacific railroad that all future orders for passenger equipment will be for steel cars. Recently these cars have been given a trial by the road and it has been decided to do away entirely with wooden cars. Extensive orders for new steel cars already have been placed.

In adopting this policy the officials of the road declare that it is merely in line with the general policy to do away with equipment which is susceptible to easy destruction in wrecks or fires. The new steel cars, it is claimed also will afford greater comfort to the passengers.

PASSENGER TRAIN RUNS INTO THE 20TH CENTURY LIMITED.

Chicago-New York Express Running
62 MPHs an Hour When the Crash Comes.

Erie, Pa., Dec. 14.—The Twentieth Century Limited, the New York Central fast train enroute from Chicago to New York, collided with the rear-end of passenger train No. 10 on the Lake Shore road at Northeast, Pa., 16 miles east of here, shortly after midnight. At the time of the collision the Twentieth Century was easily making 62 miles an hour. Six bodies have already been taken from the wreck. Twenty people are reported dead.

A relief train left here and one from Cleveland, O., both loaded with nurses and doctors for the scene of the wreck.

Northeast is a small town and at night is cut off from both telegraph and telephone communication.

The Twentieth Century is due at Northeast at 11:20 p. m., and passed running faster than schedule time.
Train No. 10, also eastbound, left here at 10:05 p. m., and was scheduled to make the siding at Northeast, but it is believed the train did not reach the siding far enough in advance of the fast flyer to make a proper clearance. The wreck occurred directly opposite the Northeast railway station.

Railway officials here refuse to make public any facts concerning the wreck.

Every ambulance in Erie is lined up at the Lake Shore railway station here, while hospitals have been notified to prepare to take care of many injured.

Coroner Hanley has been notified to prepare his morgue for the reception of the dead, which may be brought here. It is expected the more seriously injured will arrive here within an hour.

The second section of No. 26 (The Twentieth Century) was made up of two cars from St. Louis, one from Cincinnati and one from Cleveland.
The St. Louis cars were ahead and most of the dead are reported to be in them and in the two rear cars of No. 10, which carried passengers for Cleveland and Chicago. No. 10 was delayed an hour and 45 minutes at Northeast and sent a flagman back.
It is reported that his lantern went out.

PAPER TRADE IMPORTANT.

More Than $10,000,000 Changes Hands in Ten Years.

Washington, Dec. 13.—The commercial importance of paper and its kindred manufactures is shown by a bulletin just compiled by the bureau of statistics of the department of commerce and labor.

Imports of paper and products have increased from $3,000,000 in 1899 to $12,000,000 in 1909, and the exports have increased at a large rate.

During the last ten years American manufacturers have sold in foreign markets paper and manufacture valued at $80,000,000 and during the same period the United States has spent for the same products of foreign manufacture, about $70,000,000.

A LOOK AT 1908 STATISTICS

THE FARMER IS NOT BENEFITED BY TARIFF.

Figures Showing Everything Manufactured Has Materially Increased in Ten Years.

Guthrie, Dec. 13.—The assertion that the farmer can buy cheaper today than ever before is not a true statement. Let us look at some statistics taken from the reports of the bureau of Commerce and Labor for the year 1908. The period of time covered is from 1897 when prices were at the lowest ebb, to 1907 when they were a little less than the price of today, although it must be understood that manufactured articles are still rising in price.

During the period above stated cotton upland increased 61 per cent; corn increased 71 per cent; oats increased 77 per cent; wheat increased 15 per cent; steers increased 25 per cent; hogs increased 58 per cent; sheep increased 32 per cent.

Now let us look at the manufactured articles for the same period of time.

Prints—Cloth increased 79.8 per cent; sheeting increased 40 per cent; shirting increased 45 per cent; suitings—indigo blue, increased 39 per cent; suitings—serge, increased 51.8 per cent; cashmere, all wool, increased 52 per cent; cashmere—cotton warp, increased 57 per cent.

Barbed wire increased 33 per cent; wire nails increased 37 per cent; tolls and implements increased 56.8 per cent; lumber increased 50 per cent; white pine, increased 102 per cent; yellow pine increased 93 per cent; shingles, increased 81 per cent; furniture, increased 56 per cent.

Boots and shoes increased 32 per cent; men's split boots increased 62 per cent; blankets, all wool, increased 30 per cent; cotton warp wool fill blankets increased 42 per cent; calico increased 31 per cent; drillings increased 61 per cent; flannels increased 40 per cent; gingham increased 41 per cent.

It will be seen from these figures that everything manufactured has very materially increased, and this increase has been brought about largely by the high protective tariff that has shut out competition from abroad and stifled it within.

The farmer is not benefited by this tariff because it in no way effects the price of his products. Cotton that is unprotected increased in ten years 61 per cent, while wheat that was protected increased but 15 per cent. It was the demand for cotton that advanced the price, and take this year for instance when wheat is a dollar a bushel, it was not the tariff but the demand at this time that fixed the advanced price.

The farmer has not received the benefit he should have received from advanced prices, because protection has taxed away from him the amount of the increase. On everything he was compelled to buy for his family, his home, and for his farm, he has had to pay an increased price—a tax, a bounty—on the manufacturer who has been entrenched against competition—behind the tariff wall.

But the farmer has been even more fortunate than the millions of men and women who have been dependent upon salaries and wages that have not increased half the percent that have the necessities of life.

Think of the thousands upon thousands of men with families to support who are earning but ten and twelve dollars per week, and the necessities of life in this year of 1909 advanced 50 per cent over ten years ago.

Is it any wonder that young men hesitate to marry and assume the responsibility of home making, and young women are filling the offices, shops and stores throughout the land?

Is it any wonder that the standard of morality is sinking lower and lower? Men and women deprived of the natural state of home makers because they cannot afford the pleasures of a home on the salary of one, followed their lives of celibacy and fall—naturally enough—into the paths of immorality.

No nation can endure when those who should be mothers are forced into industrial slavery through want, and men who should rear sons to fill the ranks decimated by time, spend their lives in a rooming house and take their meals at a hash foundry.

The man who discusses the tariff question from the standpoint of passing a dime over the counter for a box of crackers, would just as confidently assert that the earth is flat because he can look out and see its flatness.

The State Insurance Commissioner has just received from the printer, copies of his second annual report which is issued in two volumes. Volume 1 contains his report on the conditions of fire insurance companies doing business in Oklahoma; Volume 2 on Life Insurance Co's. Parties writing for the reports should state whether they wish Volume 1 or Volume 2.

W. J. REED & CO'S DRY GOODS STORE SOLD

ARKANSAS MAN LATEST ADDITION TO ADA'S BUSINESS CIRCLE.

W. J. Kirkpatrick Buys Establishment This Morning for Eight Thousand Dollars.

A deal was made this morning whereby W. J. Kirkpatrick takes over the stock of dry goods of W. J. Reed and Company on Main street.

Mr. Kirkpatrick is from Rogers, Arkansas, and as soon as the deal was consummated he left for that place. He will return to Ada in a few days and take active management of his business. The price paid was $8000.

W. J. Reed has been in business here for eighteen years. About four years ago W. C. Lee purchased a part of the enterprise which since that time has been known as W. J. Reed and Company.

W. C. Guest and A. L. Nettles have been permanently employed by Mr. Kirkpatrick and are now taking care of the business.

Messrs. Reed and Lee have not yet decided what they will follow in a business way.

INSURGENT CAUSE WEAKENING.

Marines Will Be Rushed to Nicaragua When the Government Forces Are Said to Be Marching on Bluefields.

Bluefields, Nic., Dec. 12.—A staff correspondent of the Associated Press who recently arrived here has canvassed the situation and finds it less hopeful for the insurgents than had been believed.

General Estrada is greatly disturbed and has appealed to United States Consul Moffat for blue jackets from the cruiser Des Moines to protect Americans. It is known, however, that what he really wishes is intervention by the United States to save the insurgent cause.

While General Vasquez at the head of a handful of loyal troops was parleying with Estrada's envoys before Rama, it is said the main army of Zelaya was marching on Bluefields. A disquieting report comes from Greytown, which is said to contain a government force sufficient to rout the besieging troops under General Chamorro whenever the word is given.

It is possible that the provisionals are unduly alarmed, just as they appear to have been over confident; but the situation is set forth as it is viewed from the insurgent standpoint.

Conference a Blind.

It turns out that the conference sought by General Vasquez, of the government troops, near Rama, and which the insurgents had interpreted as a sign of yielding on the part of Zelaya's troops was a blind intended to secure delay of the expected battle until the loyal army had gained a decided advantage of position. It is also learned that while Zelaya had kept a scattered force before Rama his real army of 3,000 men was hurrying by forced marches toward Bluefields.

WANTS NEW IMMUNITY LAW

Wickersham Tells Congress It Would Aid Government in Prosecuting Cases.

Washington, Dec. 11.—Efforts to recover all money due, and to punish the persons involved in the sugar frauds at New York, are to be vigorously pushed, according to Attorney General Wickersham, whose annual report was laid before congress today. The evidence, he says, has disclosed a network of corruption, not confined to the American Sugar Refining company, and extending over a period of years, affecting both importers and officers of the government. He asks for a special appropriation of $50,000 so that the prosecutions may effectively proceed.

An important announcement is that questions not determined by the supreme court, in what are known as the "commodities clause causes" arising under the law, relating to interstate commerce are to be presented hereafter for judicial determination.

In the public land frauds prosecution, the attorney general makes it clear that he is determined in no respect to abate the effort to successfully conclude them.

Recommendation is made for a general immunity statute to meet the conditions which arise in the endeavor to procure testimony for the government.

PRETTY GIRLIE TO BE REWARDED

Florence Pretz, the Billiken Girl, May Get Some Money.

Spokane, Wash., Dec. 13.—Pretty Florence Pretz, creator of Billiken, "God of things as They Ought to be," little dreams that the idol she banished from her modest home at Kansas City because he proved an ungrateful wretch to his maker, meanwhile bringing luck to scores of thousands of worshippers at his shrine has a pleasant surprise in store for her. The ridiculous, grinning fetish will bring recognition of a substantial kind for her, if the movement to be launched in Spokane is as successful as its promoters expect it to be.

Arthur W. Jones, secretary of the One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Club of Spokane, which will disband to be re-organized as the Quarter Million Club on the evening of January 13, is planning a small assessment on the 3,000 members of the organization, also 1,000 candidates to be initiated that night, as a nucleus of a Billiken fund. A committee of 250 will then make a canvass of the homes and officers of lumbermen, mine operators, railroad builders, bonanza wheat ranchers, apple growers, land owners and others to levy an assessment of not more than nine cents for every clay idol found on the premises.

"We expect to raise no less than $1,000 before the close of the campaign," said Mr. Jones in outlining the plan, "and every penny of it will be forwarded to Miss Pretz, in the event she desires to resume her art studies. The brave girl belongs to us as much as if she were a native daughter of the City Beautiful, and we hope to be able to change her keen disappointment over losing control of her creation to a joyful realization of things as they should be, and prove that after all Billiken, now repudiated, is indeed her god of good fortune."

A. A. A. Chilson, postoffice inspector was in the city today.

HUNTING FOR ANCESTORS

"I've been looking up my ancestors," said Loretta with a sigh of satisfaction. "And I've made an outline of all the grandparents, see?"

She unfolded a large sheet of wrapping paper on the library table as she spoke.

"Of course," she said, "it's only a mere skeleton."

"Indeed!" said her brother, with interest. "It's what is known as a family skeleton, I suppose?"

"I was a little troubled at this place," went on Loretta, pointing, "because Tryphena, here, married a Smith, as you see. The young man at the library was very nice and brought me a great pile of Smith genealogies, but I got so dizzy reading them that I just could not find my ancestor. I stayed so late that I had to stand up all the way home on the car. It's perfectly appalling to see how many persons of one name came over to America in those early days."

"They must have had to engage staterooms six months ahead," said her brother. "But look here. Why isn't this line of ancestors carried out?"

"They lived in Newark," said Loretta, proudly, "and the British army burned all the records there."

"Wasn't that lucky!" cried her brother. "They probably felt they were doing a good deed in saving the descendants trouble. Now we can sit back and say we are descended from Alfred the Great, though, of course, we can't prove it because those fiendish redcoats burned all the records. If they had only been more thorough they would have spared you a lot of work."

"Another place bothered me," said Loretta, ignoring her brother's attempts at humor, "was here, where I can't find out what became of Deodatus."

"Deodatus was a man, of course. I have sense enough to know that he died, since he was born in 1687. What I want to know is whether he was born in Newark or in England."

"I shouldn't think that would matter. Isn't it sufficient to know he was born somewhere?"

"Don't be foolish!" said Loretta, severely. "I should think you'd take some interest in your family. It's only decent."

"Well, of course, if you look at it that way," said her brother, "I certainly am interested. It's only that I can't see they did anything very remarkable. They were just born and got married and died, one after the other. Anybody could do as well as that, it seems to me. Doubtless a good many did better."

"But the others didn't belong to us!"

"No, thank goodness! We have our hands full as it is."

"I don't care that they did," said Loretta, with enthusiasm. "I'm interested in their very names. See how odd they were—Israhiah, Mehetable, Caleb, Ebenezer, Deborah, Thaddeus—"

"Yes," interrupted her brother, "and here's Moses and Aaron, too. And, well, I declare! Here's Adam! I didn't know you'd been able to go back as far as that! Where's Eve?"

"The very dates are interesting to me," declared Loretta, unheeding. "See how beautifully they all fit in!"

"This one particularly," said her brother. "You see, this fellow, Joab, was married in 1645 and was born in 1690. Wonderful, isn't it?"

"I must have mixed those," said Loretta, hastily. "I'll change it. This Jonathan is the one who fought in the revolution. Isn't that splendid?"

"Great!" said her brother, after a moment's careful examination of the chart. "He was a prodigy as well as a patriot. I see he was a colonel at the early age of ten."

"What!" cried Loretta. "I'll have to ask the young man at the library about that. It was his fault, I think. He must have brought me the wrong book."

"Probably he thought you wouldn't notice a little thing like that," said her brother. "It might be, however, that the dates slipped his mind, though a librarian has so little to do that he has no business being so careless about such important matters."

"Here's one of our ancestors who was married four times," Loretta went on. "And I can't find out which one of the four we are descended from. Let us have all four of them for foremothers," suggested her brother. "We hear often enough about our forefathers."

"I think it's perfectly horrid of you to be so disrespectful," sighed Loretta, in despair. "I should think you'd have too much pride."

"It's my pride that's the trouble," said her brother. "Thank goodness it isn't fashionable to wear one's family tree stuck in one's hat. There's the doorbell! Quick, give me the paper! We must get the family skeleton back into the closet before anybody sees it!"
